

HP No. 348 Photo Inkjet Print Cartridge

The HP No.348 Photo Inkjet Print Cartridge is designed for digital photography enthusiasts and other users who want the ability to print crisp, true-to-life photos – or photo-based documents or other projects – with exceptional fade resistance.

Get crisp, true-to-life colour for professional-quality photos.

- Produce bright, rich photos with less grain for truly impressive results – wide colour gamut means smooth colour transitions.
- Print true-to-life colour photos by combining this cartridge with HP No. 344 or 343 Tri-colour Cartridges to create HP's 6-ink printing system.
- Get studio-quality photos with a huge colour gamut when you use this cartridge together with the HP No. 344 or 343 Tri-colour Cartridges and HP No. 100 Grey Photo Cartridge to create HP's 8-ink printing system.

Make your memories last, with photos that resist fading for generations¹.

- Print photos with exceptional fade resistance and make sure those moments stay as fresh, bright and vivid as the day you captured them.
- Get performance you can rely on – proprietary dye-based inks have been specially formulated for this cartridge to provide superior fade resistance on HP Premium Plus photo papers.

- The perfect choice for photos you want to keep, whether in an album, on the wall or on your desk; also ideal for printing multiple copies that you can share with others.

Smart printing features² for quality, convenience and ease-of-use.

- Carefree printing – proactive on-screen alerts let you know when ink levels are running low so you can renew supplies before they run out; alternatively, check ink levels at any time via your printer toolbox.
- Printer communicates with the cartridge and makes ongoing adjustments to ensure that you get consistently high quality printing.
- Replacement cartridges are designed for easy installation – system checks cartridge installation then confirms that it's a genuine HP cartridge.

¹Based on HP light fade testing under glass using HP Premium Plus photo papers.
²Using genuine HP supplies ensures availability of all HP printing features.

This advanced photo cartridge – part of HP's 6- and 8-ink printing systems – works together with other HP cartridges to provide crisp, true-to-life colour for vibrant, professional-quality photos that resist fading for generations¹.
